Dear Mr. O'Neal:

Your letter to President Nixon about the rally on Tuesday, November 11, was both heartening and encouraging. This expression of your faith and confidence holds special meaning for him.

At a time when internal strength is of utmost importance in our efforts for peace abroad, we, the silent majority, must sound our carillon for patriotic fervor.

I am enclosing a copy of the President's November 3 remarks as well as a copy of his Veterans Day Proclamation which may be of use to you in your rally program. You have the President's best wishes for the success of this convocation, and the promise of his undying efforts to bring the Vietnam war to an honorable end.

Sincerely,

James Keogh
